

Fantasy Action Tower Defense 'Gensokyo Defenders' release digitally on PlayStation®4 at November 29

November 29, 2018 - TOKYO - Mediascape Co. Ltd. announced the PlayStation®4 version of Gensokyo Defenders by developer Neetpia will be available today in North America, and Most of Europe. It is available on PlayStation®Store.

'Gensokyo Defenders' is a fan-developed 3D reinterpretation of the spell card duels featured in the popular Touhou Project series of shoot-em-ups. Unlike other typical tower defense games, you can not only place turrets or traps, also attack your enemies by controlling your own characters and using shot or SpellCards.

Key Features:

- Explode, freeze, and mesmerise your enemies with over 20 playable characters who have unique skills,
- Stunning beautiful 3D graphics and effects expressing Touhou World beautifully.
- A single-player story mode, with the popular character "Cirno" as the main character
- Online co-op up to two players via PlayStation™Network.

Website : <http://neetpia.sakura.ne.jp/works/GensoukyouDefenders/en/index.html>

Get press kit here:

About Mediascape Co. Ltd:

Located in Taito Ward of Tokyo, Japan, its PlayDoujin project was created with the goal of bringing PC games by local independent developers to game consoles.

Website: <http://www.mediascape.co.jp/>

Contact: guide@mediascape.co.jp

About Neetpia:

Website (Japanese): <http://neetpia.sakura.ne.jp/>